

DRONE International Conference 2025

Unmanned Aircraft Systems and the Evolving Regulatory Environment

September 12, 2025 | Budapest, Hungary

Ludovika University of Public Service, Saint Ladislaus Chapel
Ludovika tér 2, Budapest, Hungary

Conference Language: English

Participation is free, but registration is required

Insert QR code or registration link

Agenda Highlights

Opening Session

- Prof László Kovács – Vice-Rector, Ludovika University of Public Service
- Dr Balázs Bartóki-Gönczy – Director, Institute of Aerospace & Telecommunications Law
- General (Ret.) László Tömböl – Former Chief of Defence
- István Sárhegyi – CEO, 4iG Space and Defence Technologies

Session I: UTM Systems and Regulatory Challenges

Speakers from Leiden University, LODD Autonomous, HungaroControl, High Lander Aviation

Session II: Civil-Military Drone Applications

Speakers from King's College London, NUoPS, MoD HM EI, Rotors and Cams

Session III: Drones in a Modern Digital World

Speakers from 4iG Space and Defence Technologies, Leiden University, JS Space Consultants, Hungarian Defence Forces, Ludovika University

Session IV: Book Launch

"International Aviation Law – Regulations in Three Dimensions"
Presented by Prof. Gábor Kardos, ELTE University

Closing Speech

Máté Löwinger – Director General of Civil Aviation

Airshow

Time: 17:00–19:00

Location: Orczy Park, Ludovika University Campus

The organizers reserve the right to modify the flight program for safety reason (e.g., weather conditions).

Additional Information

- All events will take place in Building 1.
- The airshow will be held in Area 18 (adjacent green area).
- The venue spans 26 hectares and includes all activities within a defined perimeter.
- Lunch, coffee and refreshments will be served in the designated area.