

CONTENTS

Treaties and International Conventions	7
Editors' Preface	9

PART ONE: LEGAL FOUNDATIONS AND GOVERNANCE OF THE MILITARY USE OF OUTER SPACE

PHILIPPE ACHILLEAS

Military Activities in Outer Space in Light of the Outer Space Treaty	13
---	----

GÁBOR SÜLYÖK

Space Security and Collective Security: Basic Conceptual Relations	29
--	----

CHARLINE COUDRY

Neutrality Law and Space Assets: A Framework for Protection or a Source of Escalation?	57
---	----

BARBARA HORVÁTH

The Principles of Due Regard and Harmful Interference in Armed Conflict	83
--	----

BOUDOUR MEFTEH

Reconnaissance Satellites in Modern Warfare: Espionage or Legitimate Surveillance? – Addressing Their Legal Status and Regulatory Gaps	113
--	-----

PART TWO: LEGAL QUESTIONS OF THE INVOLVEMENT OF NON-STATE ACTORS IN SPACE WARFARE

MÓNIKA GANCZER

- Know Your Enemy: Space Activities of Non-Governmental
Entities in International Armed Conflicts 147

HUGO PETER

- The Principle of State Responsibility for the Involvement of Private Space Actors in Military Operations 169

PART THREE: STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS
FOR NATO AND THE EU

ANDRÁS EDL

- Usage of Anti-Satellite Weapons: The Psychological Aspects 189

ENDRE MISZORI

- Legal Architecture vs. Realpolitik in NATO Military Space
Activities – Strategic Darwinism and Pragmatism in Future Space Warfare 217

JUSTINE DOUSSET

- Legal Questions Related to the EU's Satellites as Targets or Tools in an International Armed Conflict 241

QUENTIN GUÉHO

- Legal Study of the Strategic Necessity of Developing Sovereign Telecommunication Space-based Capabilities
– Why U.S. Data Law Tells Us to Develop Our Own Satellites 287

- Notes on Contributors* 334